SMALL GROUP HOUSEKEEPING

Take a few minutes to talk about where and when you will meet next week, and who will be in charge of any meals or snacks.

Collect phone numbers and email addresses from your group members. The small group roster in the back of this book is a good place to keep this information. Just pass the books around and have each member fill in their contact info.

Select one volunteer from your group to be the Email Coordinator. He or she can help forward prayer requests around the group, and send out reminders each week about the next meeting.
