How can expecting to encounter God each day impact your outlook on life?

Review your day yesterday. How did you experience God's presence with you? Did you notice it at the time? What happened?

ENGAGE

Open your Bibles and have someone read Psalm 139:1–18.

These verses speak of God's presence in various places and times in life. Which of these images has the most impact on you right now—and why?

How does it help you to know that God is with you at all times? How does it challenge you?

In what area of your life do you sometimes feel like God is not with you? How could the truth of this passage help you?
